

Directions

to the Clinical Research Facility (Education Centre)

Please enter the Fulham Wing, Royal Brompton Hospital, via the Fulham Road entrance. Then go up the stairs, which are located just to the left of the Reception area on the ground floor (there are two flights of stairs from ground level; there is a lift from the ground level if required). The Clinical Research Facility is on the 1st floor. Ask Reception for the Education Centre.

On the day itself, please ring Magda Wheatley (07813 579150) with any queries.

Travel Information:

Tube: we are a 5-10 minute walk from South Kensington station, which is on the Circle, District and Piccadilly lines. Once you have exited the tube station's main barriers, mount the stairs and take the left hand exit, cross the pedestrian crossings in front of you and walk down Onslow Place to the Fulham Road. Turn right and continue walking down for 250 yards. The Fulham Road wing is on the left side, just after the Royal Marsden Hospital.

Bus:

Numbers 14, 211, 345 and 414 stop outside the Fulham Road wing on Fulham Road. Numbers 49 and 211 stop in Sydney Street for our main reception.

Travelling by Car:

Congestion charge: Royal Brompton Hospital is in the central London congestion charging zone.

Parking: the hospital is in a parking meter zone. There are very limited spaces available in front of Sydney Street wing for disabled badge holders.

The nearest public car park is three minutes' walk away on Sydney Street, near the King's Road and is run by CP Plus Parking. On-street parking is allowed in metered bays in nearby side streets. Both options are expensive.

There are four parking spaces for disabled drivers in Cale Street and three in Foulis Terrace.
