

LUNG FUNCTION TESTING IN THE WORKPLACE – INTRODUCTORY LEVEL

National Heart and Lung Institute, Guy Scadding Building, Dovehouse Street: Seminar Room A

Tuesday 10 July 2018

Faculty: Julie Cannon,¹ Paul Cullinan,¹ Bernadette Fitzgerald,¹

Sindhu Sivagnanasithiyar,² Jo Szram¹

PROGRAMME

Times	Session	Venue
9.00 - 9.30am	Registration	Seminar Room A
9.30 - 9.45	Introductions
9.45 - 11.15 Jo	Session 1: Respiratory physiology and spirometry: the basics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • principles of measurement • preparation and performance of the test • acceptable criteria • potential errors and common problems • contraindications to testing • quality control • calibration • infection control
11.15 - 11.30	Break
11.30 – 12.30pm Julie, Bernadette, Jo, Sindhu, Richard Haynes (Intermedical)	Practical session (Delegates are divided into groups, and rotated in turn)	Seminar Room A
12.30 - 1.30	Lunch	Refectory
1.30-2.30 Julie	Session 2: Spirometry – what does it all mean?	Seminar Room A
2.30 – 3.30 Paul	Session 3: How to get it right and how to get it wrong: practical issues
3.30 - 4.30 Julie, Bernadette and Paul	Session 4: Case studies (Delegates are divided into groups for this)
4.30 – 5.00 Julie and Bernadette	Question and Answer session, with tea available

¹ Royal Brompton Hospital: Occupational and Environmental Medicine

² Evelina London Children's Hospital, London

Accredited by the Faculty of Occupational Medicine: 6 points

~ Spirometry equipment and consumables kindly supplied by Intermedical (UK) Ltd., Aylesford, Kent ~

intermedical